“The client is the expert in her life.” Please provide, in detail, an example of how the NFP Nurse brought their expert care to the table and blended it with the expertise of the mom to support the mom in accomplishing her heart's desire.

Please provide specific examples/client situations demonstrating how the NFP Nurse intuitively follows the five client-centered principles.

Please describe in detail an example of how this NFP Nurse brings passion and excellence to the nursing practice and professional services. (examples include: mentoring nurses, creating educational materials, improving efficiency in the agency, etc.)

What “self-care” strategies does this NFP Nurse employ personally or within their team to ensure their own personal health in the midst of serving high-risk client populations?

How does this NFP Nurse focus on the development of the relationship with their moms and families in the early visits? Please share one or two strategies employed by this NFP Nurse that has helped engage and retain moms and families.

What is one creative way the NFP Nurse engages a mom or family that is struggling with a difficult situation?
